“ So many memories of Alan. This was my first love. The example by which all whom followed, failed. The epitome of A gentle giant. Alan became a big part of our family in our younger days . The love and respect he showed to my disabled sister and the friendship he shared with my father are a part of so many memories. Or the time he snatched up my niece to keep her from being swept down the Nantahala. !or his peanut butter/cheese sandwiches. Who eats that? Well, we met a man on the side of the road selling boiled peanuts and what's he eating, pb/cheese!!!

Probably last spoke around 2006. Have tried in recent years with Facebook and friends to reach out and find Alan. Unfortunately, I was unsuccessful.

My heart goes out to His entire family and all other friends and family of this sweet, loving man. God Bless you all.
