

Tracey Sanders Womble

April 25, 2020

Tracey Sanders Womble, aged 60, passed away at her home in Gulf Shores after a short time in hospice.

Tracey was a native of Atlanta, and retired to Gulf Shores after a 35 year career as a Registered Nurse. She spent her entire career in the field of Reproductive/Fertility Medicine, and her greatest joy was assisting patients to conceive a child. She was an accomplished tennis player, an avid gardener, and was a Graduate of the University of Georgia in Athens.

Tracey is survived by her husband of 27 years, Hal S. Womble, daughters Hannah Ray of Dawsonville, GA, and Shay Davidson of Houston, TX and her eight grandchildren

She was deeply loved and will be missed by her extended family throughout Tennessee.

“ As I read the beautiful tributes to Tracey, many memories float across my mind of her, her parents, Jack and Tommie Sanders, and her grandparents Glynn and Ruvie McBrayer. Tracey and I were second cousins. My Mother, Mamie Hannah Dugan and her Grandmother, Ruvie Hannah McBrayer were sisters. Although I was 10 years older than Tracey, I still have fond memories of her at her grandparents home. She was a wisp of a beautiful, blond haired girl running around in the "country". To her husband Hal and her daughters Hannah and Shay she was the grown up beautiful, blond haired woman and Mother. Loved by all of us. May she rest in peace, and my prayers to Hal, Shay, Hannah, and their families. Pat Dugan Rakestraw

“ When I was young, my family would travel to Dallas, Georgia to visit my grandmother and grandfather. It was there that Tracey (my cousin) and I would play together and we would have a wonderful time. May Tracey rest in peace.

“ I remember Tracey's wedding day with Tad and Shay there and Tracey being so calm and ready to marry Hal. I remember last May when we had such a good visit and conversations with Hal and Tracey at the beach. I remember Tracey's love of Hannah, Shay, her grandchildren and of tennis. Tracey personified Southern charm. Melody W.

“ When I was a little girl, Aunt Tracey reminded me of a fairy godmother - beautiful, joyful, encouraging, and with a bubbly laugh that lifted you up right along with it. She was an absolutely lovely person, inside and out, and it was always a joy to be around her. I will miss her and remember her with happiness until I see her again!

“ Until I actually saw this... I felt like maybe it wasn't true... Hoped it wasn't true. You're one of my favorite people on this earth... I have loved you since we were toddlers! You were the cousin I always wanted to visit...we always had the best times together. Even though we didn't see each other a lot in later years whenever we got together it' was like no time had passed at all and we were teenagers again! I will cherish those memories until I see you again... then we'll make more! Rest well in God's love. Hal, Hannah and family you will remain in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Our very best thoughts and memories go with Tracey and to family. We always knew Tracey with Hal took loving care of our most precious people - Tadd & Shay. She gave me the confidence to just breathe in what could have been difficult days - Thank you, Trace, go with God. Love, David and Jeanne

“ In 2019 we went to mobile Alabama, for Mardi Gras. I'm so glad grandma Tracey was there to celebrate the holiday with us. I had lots of fun with Tracey and will be thinking of her.

When my family would go visit my grandmother and grandfather (Mamie and Bob Dugan in Dallas, Georgia), we would often make the trip so that we could attend the Hannah family reunion. I remember with such fond memories playing with Tracey and having a "big time". May she rest in peace.

“ I will miss Tracey's steady and consistent practicality - Always a voice of reason and a calm in the storm. I am not sure if I have ever seen her angry, overwhelmed, or at the end of her rope. I hope to be more like this ❤️

“ For those who knew my mom you know that she would light up a room just by walking in it. She was the kindest soul that you would ever meet & she never met a stranger. She spent her life helping others through her nursing and being the best wife and mother she could be. Thank you all for your thoughts and prayers during this time, they are more than appreciated.
