

Virginia C Julavits

September 14, 1924 - August 16, 2019

Joe Julavits Jr. Virginia Julavits died peacefully at her home surrounded by loved ones on Aug. 16, 2019 in Foley, Ala. She was 94. Her death comes almost a year after the passing of her husband of more than 70 years, Joseph Julavits Sr. Virginia, also known as Ginny and Tootsie, was born in Pensacola, raised in Tampa and graduated from Florida State University. She was a school teacher for many years and a prolific poet, having been published in a number of periodicals. She enjoyed drawing up house plans, collecting doll houses and traveling, especially to England. She was a voracious reader, everything from mystery novels to biographies. A speed reader, Virginia could finish a 300-page novel in an afternoon. Her beloved dachshund Schatzie was with her when she died. She is survived by multiple children, grandchildren and great grandchildren.

Private Service

Tribute Wall

JO

“ We had the privilege and very fond memories of traveling to Venice with Toot. She was good with my dad, Robert Oertley, who accompanied us despite his affliction with alzheimer's. Toot was so kind and patient with him, and made him, and the rest of us laugh! We wish we could have travelled with or otherwise spent more time with Toot. She was my aunt, being the sister of my stepmother, Patricia Webb Oertley. I'm sorry this news took so long to reach us. Mark has worked a bit on Toot's and Pat's genealogy. Jill Oertley and Mark Swift, P.O. Box 1166, Waldport, OR

Jill Oertley - October 27, 2019 at 05:33 PM

JJ

“ Virginia Julavits died peacefully at her home surrounded by loved ones on Aug. 16, 2019 in Foley, Ala. She was 94. Her death comes almost a year after the passing of her husband of more than 70 years, Joseph Julavits Sr. Virginia, also known as Ginny and Tootsie, was born in Pensacola, raised in Tampa and graduated from Florida State University. She was a school teacher for many years and a prolific poet, having been published in a number of periodicals. She enjoyed drawing up house plans, collecting doll houses and traveling, especially to England. She was a voracious reader, everything from mystery novels to biographies. A speed reader, Virginia could finish a 300-page novel in an afternoon. Her beloved dachshund Schatzie was with her when she died. She is survived by multiple children, grandchildren and great grandchildren.

Joe Julavits Jr. - August 26, 2019 at 12:49 PM