

Walter Noonchester

October 24, 2023

(January 7, 1946 - October 24, 2023)

Walter George (Joe) Noonchester, 77, of Perdido, passed away Tuesday, October 24, 2023, surrounded by family at his sons home.

A Celebration of Life will be held at a later date, to be announced by the family.

He was a native of Middlesboro, KY, and also lived in Covington, KY, and Cincinnati, Ohio, areas. He was a long-time resident of Brewton before moving to Perdido, AL. He was a former U.S. Marine, having trained at Camp Pendleton, Cal., and served two tours of duty in Vietnam. He was a retired insurance salesman with United Health & Life. He was an avid fisherman and enjoyed gardening and spending time with family and friends.

He is survived by his two sons, Walter George (Joey) Noonchester II, and Raymond Noonchester of Perdido; a brother, Robert (Cheryl) Noonchester of Newport, Ken.; eight grandchildren, Kortni, Cody, Alex T., Sierra, Alex N., Madison, Andrianna, and Ian; two great grandchild; many nieces and nephews; special friends Bonnie Martin Norman, and Alyssa Davies; and many other friends and loved ones.

Patricia Davies

He is preceded in death by parents, Raymond and Virginia Noonchester; two brothers and two sisters.

His family would like to thank USA Health University Hospital in Mobile, Springhill Hospice in Daphne, all of the doctors, specialists, nurses, and staff for the wonderful care and services they provided.