

William Terry Clark Sr

December 8, 2025

William “Terry” Clark, Sr. passed into eternal rest on Monday, December 8, 2025.

Born on July 2, 1946, in Mobile, Alabama, Terry was raised in Semmes and graduated from Semmes High School. He attended the University of Southern Mississippi and later served in the United States Marine Corps.

In 1971, Terry married his beloved wife, Cecilia, in Birmingham, Alabama. In 1977, they moved to Gulf Shores, Alabama, where they made their home. For more than 55 years, Cecilia was his anchor and the true love of his life. Being by her side was always where Terry wanted to be.

In 1974 they welcomed their first son, William Terry Clark, Jr., known to all as Ty, followed by their second son, Jason Brandon Clark, who was married to Shannon (deceased). Together, Jason and Shannon welcomed Terry’s only grandchild, Lenox. Shannon will always be remembered as a cherished part of the Clark family. Though his immediate family was small, it was his entire world.

Terry is survived by his wife, Cecilia; his sons and grandson; his sister, Mary Ellen "Mimi" Gwin; eight nephews and nieces; and a host of extended family and dear friends. He was preceded in death by his father, mother, stepfather, and brother.

Terry never met a stranger, and his laughter, stories, and genuine kindness left a lasting mark on everyone he met. In Gulf Shores, Terry was family and proudly known as one of the OG's of the town he loved. He would want those who knew him to live fully, laugh often, and lead with kindness. His spirit will live on through all who loved him.

A celebration of life will be held at a later date. Details will be shared when finalized.

Arrangements are entrusted to Cason Funeral Service in Foley AL
