

William Morris Dillman

November 9, 1938 - April 19, 2016

William Morris Dillman passed away Tuesday, April 19, 2016. Having been born to the union of his parents Morris Dillman and Betty Boatwright Dillman on November 9, 1938. He was preceded in death by his both of his parents, Sisters, Louise Dillman Agtuca, and Joyce Dillman Tucker, and Brother Stanley Dillman. William is survived by his nieces Judy (Ron) Gregerson of Gulf Shores, Alabama and Juli (Joel) Kemelhar of Cleveland, Ohio and Suzanne Garris, of Plant City Florida, and nephews, Steve (Patty) Crews of Palm Springs Florida, Major Crews (Shelia) of Gray, Georgia and Randy Agtuca of Plant City Florida. He was also survived by a host of great nieces and nephews. He also leaves to cherish his memories special friends from the Baptist Retirement Village in Gadsden, Alabama including Evonne Pearl, Jean Tennyson, and Peggy Payne, along with longtime friend Carolyn Davis of Deltona Florida. William was associated with the Jehovah's Witnesses and often reflected upon the scripture found in Revelation 21:3, 4, when there will be no more pain or suffering to be found in the Earth in the future
Arrangements by Cason Funeral Service, Foley, Al

Tribute Wall

CR

“ Crews lit a candle in memory of William Morris Dillman

crews - May 07, 2016 at 06:38 AM

CR

“ We will miss your sweet spirit and kind heart. They were a rare and beautiful blessing in this world.

crews - May 07, 2016 at 06:38 AM